E. M. AISQUITH. From the Louisville Journal.

You bid me seek at eventide
The hawthorn tree,
Where first I told, with modest pride,
My love for thee.
You bid me—all thy scorn forgot,
And cold disdain—
To meet thee on that hallow'd spot—
To trust again!

You tell me, in the inmost cells Of thy young heart. Devoutly shrin'd my image dwells, Alone—apart;
A dew-drop in the lily's cup—
The silver light
The evening star has kindled up—
Is not more bright!

You tell one, that the winds that mean bund that dear tree,

A th gent voice and whining tone,

I plend for thee;

Lat every flower about our feet,

Will mem'ry woo—

Some witching spell of old repeat—
For thee to see!

You tell me, that thy young love grows . From hour to hou

From hour to hour,
Even as the petals of the rose,
From bud to flower!
You tell me—oh! deceive me not!
That heart of thine,
Its love for me has ne'er forgot—
Is only mine!

General Intelligence.

TERRIFIC HAIL STORM .- The coal region of Schuylkill county, Pa., was visited on Saturday afternoon by another storm of deluging rain, that lasted over an hour. In the Pine Grove and Muddy Branch districts hail fell, such as has not been seen before. The size of the hail stones exceeds belief. Many that were measured proved to be six inches in circumference. Three hundred panes of glass were destroyed in the mansion of Mr. Martin Weaver, at the head of Muddy Branch. The standing grain was cut to shreds and ruined; the grass and garden truck also. Every tree was stipped of its leaves, its branches broken and its bark pealed. Devastation followed the course of the awful scourge. Its source was in the North, and its path Southward. After the gale, the depth of haldstones collected in the bottoms of the slopeing coal schutes was ten inches. Reports say the danage was severe at Tremont, in Pine Grove.

Mexico .- The Philadelphia Ledger says that the population of Mexico is estimated at nine millions among which it enumerates "Europeans, Spaniards, Creoles or natives decended from Europears, Mustejos, or decendants of Whites and Indians; Zambas, or decendants of Negroes and Indians; Mulattoes, or decendants of Whites and Negroes, mixtures of these varieties, Negroes, and a few Maylays from China and the Islands of the Daniel & Co., together with the benches, lasts, and other tools belonging to him, the business of manufacturing BOOTS AND SHOES in all its se tration of Mexico from Spain in 1810."

FIN. ARISTA .- It is said that Gen. Arista comdated hereafter with the same promptness and friend has given us some striking anecdotes of Gen. A. For some years he resided at Cincinnati, and carried on the tining business. In the city of Mexico he worked industriously in his little tin shop. Under the garb of modesty and pov-CIRCUMSTANCES beyond my control having compelled me to adopt a new arrangement for making a living, as shown by the above ous and domineering rivalry; but in the excitement of war, he was called forth to take command tomers, that so far as they are concerned, they of the Mexican army. He is said to be a man of shall lose nothing by the new arrangement, in be- qualities vastly superior to those of his countrymen. [Rich. Enquirer.

CAPT. MAY .- This gallant officer, (whose exploit in taking the batteries under General Vega, and himself a prisoner, is the theme of such deserved praise,) it is said, was appointed by President Jackson, on his own application for a post in the Army. Congress had just passed the act for raising a Regiment of Dragoons, when young May, who, wearied of the idle life of a young gentleman in Washington, resolved to ask President Jackson for an appointment in the same, and went boldly in person to the Old Hero and ten-dered his services. The General measured him with the eve of a veteran, and seeing in May the stuff to make a soldier, appointed him on the spot to the command of one of the new companies of Dragoons. The old General remarked, "the Army needed such men." The sagacity of Jackson in this, as in every act of his eventful life, has been fully verified.

THE CROPS FOR 1845 .- The report of the Commissioner of Patents makes the following estimate of the crops of last year :-- Wheat, 106,-548,000 bushels; Barley 5,160,600 bushels; Oats, 163,6208,000 bushels; Rye, 27,175,000 bushels; quality of work can be purchased for in the county.

> THE TRUE SOURCE OF VIRTUE .- All our first movements are good, generous, heroical; reflec-tion weakens and kills them. The soul first speaks, and its language is that of love and virtue. The intellect afterwards reasons, and its reasonings is always more favorable to matter than to

> Be not surprised if the progress of inetllect is so often useless for virtue; nothing is more easily explained, viz: that virtue arises from another source. In the domain of the intellect all is individual; in the regions of the soul all is sympathy. We see, therefore, produced from isolated intellects, little esle than a cold egotism or a sad personality, whereas, the soul covers the world with its wings, and feels itself to live only by the love of God and of humanity .- Aime-Martin.
